

NEWS AND VIEWS...

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

We believe the following editorial by James Roberts of the Andrews County News probably deserves nationwide exposure because it expresses the deep felt grassroots opinion of most Americans we know. While our circulation is not big enough to make much of a dent in this effort for nationwide exposure, maybe every little bit will help.

Presidents, CBS, NBC, and ABC New York City, N.Y. Gentlemen:

Through your networks, we have heard the State of the Union by Republican President Gerald Ford. Then Tuesday night, under the fairness doctrine, we heard the State of the Union from Democrat Senator Muskie of Maine.

Under that same fairness doctrine, don't you think perhaps we should hear a State of the Union from Mr. Taxpayer?

Since he wouldn't be running for election this year, we might actually get a down to earth, grassroots picture of the actual state of the Union.

And unfortunately, since you three gentlemen have all chosen to headquartered in Manhattan instead of perhaps locating one network on the west coast and another in the Midwest, the actual state of the union is far from the picture regularly painted.

We think a state of the union address by Mr. Taxpayer would reveal a consensus among taxpayers of this nation that things are in one helluva of a mess.

And most of the mess can be traced to the actions or inactions of the federal government.

You might find that most of us compare the federal government to cockroaches: it's not what they eat and carry off but what they fall into and mess up.

Our taxpayer state of the union would reveal that most Americans believe that the federal government, once away from their constitutional field of defense and foreign policy, is the nation's least likely candidate to conduct any program properly, efficiently, or economically.

Education is a case in point.

After the Russians launched Sputnik, we went on an educational binge with the federal government pouring billions into schools at all levels. The result? The national scholastic level of achievement is dropping alarmingly each year.

Law enforcement is another case in point. Under the slogan of law and order, we've poured billions into law enforcement agencies around the country for fancy gee-gaws, fancy communications, fancier computers... and the crime rate is soaring nationwide.

Today the parents of a new born male son facing a frightening statistic. That day-old son faces a greater chance of being murdered by a criminal here in the United States before he reaches the age of 24 than he did of dying fighting in World War II, Korea, or Vietnam.

It's a crying shame that with our nation at peace abroad, we face an even deadlier enemy from crime on our streets.

The federal government has usurped the field of welfare and made it into a bureaucratic nightmare with no control over recipients or spiraling costs. It entered the health field with the same disastrous results.

And with typical Washington finesse, our national government is slowly but inexorably destroying three of the institutions that the taxpayer had faith in: the Social Security program, the FBI and the CIA.

The federal government has made a lifetime career of studying problems like drugs, juvenile delinquency, over-regulation of commerce, imports, exports, and historically solved nothing.

A state of the union by a taxpayer

Full Slate of Candidates In City Races

A full slate of candidates have signed for both the Hamlin City Council and the Hamlin Independent School District Trustee elections to be held here Saturday, April 3. Deadline for filing for a place on either of the two ballots is Mar. 3.

Latest candidates to file for places on the city council were Richard Young Jr., who is seeking re-election for a two-year term; Pat Willoughby, who is seeking re-election for a one-year term; and Luther Haught, who has signed up for a two-year term.

Willoughby was recently appointed to the council to fill the vacancy created when A. E. "Buddy" Killion resigned. His appointment was until the next election and he is seeking election for the remaining year of the two-year term.

Haught, manager of Piggly Wiggly Supermarket, is seeking the position on the council presently held by David Casey who is not seeking re-election.

Signing up earlier as a candidate for mayor was Robert Fowler. Joe E. Ford, presently serving as mayor, is not seeking re-election. Fowler is currently serving as councilman and will resign this position if elected mayor.

Also signing up earlier for places on the school board were Lewis Earl Madden and Clyde Lewis. Both men are seeking re-election for three-year terms.

Anyone desiring to have their names placed on the city ballot can get the necessary information and forms from the city hall. Those seeking a place on the ballot for school trustee should contact the superintendent's office in the new administrative office building behind the gymnasium.

New Voter Certificates To Be Mailed to Voters

Jones County Tax Assessor-collector Roy L. Lane said Tuesday that his office will mail within the next few days new voter certificates to all persons registered as of Jan. 31, 1976, whose voter certificates were in good standing as of that date.

These certificates will be good for the voting years 1976-78, however, your old certificates are to be used for elections until Feb. 29, 1976, with the new certificates good thereafter, he said. The old certificates should be destroyed after Mar. 1, 1976.

Included with the new certificates will be a request for information to update our current rolls, and to comply with the new voter registration law, he said. At this point Lane stated, "No one will be removed or purged from the registration rolls for failure to return the formation form, but I strongly urge you to assist our office by returning the request with all information blanks completed."

Please keep in mind, after Mar. 1, 1976, only the new blue certificates will be valid, he stressed.

Lane also noted that all persons not currently registered to vote, or who have moved since they have last voted, that they are urged to re-register or furnish his office with address change as the case may be.

Applications received since the above mentioned dates and those received daily are being processed as rapidly as possible and certificates will be mailed promptly, Lane concluded.

School Board Extends Principal Contracts

Trustees of the Hamlin Independent School District extended the two-year contracts of the three school principals for another year during their regular monthly meeting here Monday evening.

Getting one-year extensions on their contracts were B. V. Newberry, high school principal; Marvin Carlton, middle school principal; and Larry Butler, elementary school principal.

FHA Honors Patrice and David Moore

Patrice Moore was named FHA Sweetheart and David Moore was honored as FHA beau at the annual FHA Beau Night Banquet held for Future Homemakers of America members and their dates Monday evening in the high school cafeteria.

Smith attended Hardin-Simmons University and attended the Gulf Coast Business School where he studied bookkeeping and office management.

Smith and his wife, Nita, a school teacher in the Rotan School System, have three children. He managed offices in Sweetwater and Midland for Kimbell Foods for three years before entering the farming business in 1953. He liquidated all farm and farming interests in 1975 and currently has no outside interests.

Bake Sale Sat.

The Young Homemakers of Hamlin will sponsor a bake sale to be held Saturday, beginning at 9:30 a.m. in front of Piggly Wiggly Supermarket.

TO PLAY FOR DISTRICT TITLE—The Hamlin Piper basketball team will host Colorado City here Friday night in the final game of district play with the Pipers needing a win to take the District 6-AA title. The Pipers earned at least a share of the title Friday night with a 64-58 victory over Coahoma, but need a win Friday to avoid a playoff. The squad

Pipers to Host C-City For District 6-AA Crown

The Pipers took over the undisputed lead in District 6-AA basketball Friday night with an impressive, 64-58, victory over the Coahoma Bulldogs on the Bulldog's home court. With one game left on their schedule, the Pipers are the only undefeated team left in the second half of play.

The Pipers will host Colorado City here Friday night in the final district game. A win over the Wolves will put the Pipers into the playoffs against the winner of District 5-AA.

While the Pipers shared the first half with Coahoma, a win Friday night would give them the second half title and the district title.

In district 5-AA, Tahoka won the first half, but Post is leading the second half and the two teams are likely to end up in a playoff to determine the playoff representative.

The local girls ended their season Friday night in third place following their loss to Coahoma, 54-41. Coahoma and Anson will have to play

The board also approved a high school band trip to the Amarillo Music Festival in April.

Johnny Steele, tax assessor-collector for the district, reported to the board that the district has collected 95 percent of the current taxes. He also reported on a meeting recently held in Abilene on Fair Market Values.

The board meet in the new board room of the administrative office building located in the old band hall behind the gymnasium.

Speakers for the program will be three specialists from Texas A&M University and Dr. Max Hagler, veterinarian from Anson.

A two-day shortcourse on "Handling and Care of Stocker Cattle" will be held at the Hamlin high school vocational agricultural shop Monday and Tuesday evenings, starting at 7 p.m.

Speakers for the program will be three specialists from Texas A&M University and Dr. Max Hagler, veterinarian from Anson.

"Livestock Pests and Their Control" will be presented by Emory Boring, area entomologist, to open the Tuesday meeting. This will be followed at 7:45 by a session on "Health Care of Stocker Cattle" by Dr. Hagler.

off a tie to determine the playoff representative because of Coahoma winning the first half and Anson winning the second half.

The Pipers took an early lead over the Bulldogs Friday night but then fell behind by as much as nine points before starting a second quarter comeback. The Pipers were trailing by four at the end of the first period and then closed the gap to two at half time. The Pipers pulled out into the lead early in the third period and never trailed again to capture their second win over the Bulldogs.

The Pipers led by two going into the final period and then built their lead to as much as eight points before winning by six.

Gerald Rodgers and Charles Brown led the Piper scoring attack with 20 and 17 points, respectively. They were joined by Rick Craig and Steve Williams with eight each, Alan Steele with six and Delbert Thompson with five. Kennedy was high for Coahoma with 33 points.

In the girls game, Coahoma built up a seven-point half-time lead, but then Hamlin cut it to four at the start of the final period. Coahoma outscored the local girls, 17-8, in the final quarter to win, 54-41.

Starlet Covington scored 22 points and Elizabeth Hooper hit for 17 points to lead the local girls in scoring. Stacy Bell added two more and Tracy Gregory had one point.

Hamlin won the boys junior varsity game, 47-41.

Play will start here Friday night with the boys junior varsity teams at 6:30.

COMMUNITY EDUCATION—

Citizens Express Variety Of Interests In Program

Results from the survey being conducted by the Steering Committee for the Hamlin Community Education program indicate that there is some interest in Hamlin in almost every course suggested on the form.

The most popular courses are macrame, furniture refinishing and upholstering, art, college extension courses, cake decorating, knitting, welding, flower arranging, bridge, self-improvement (fashion make-up, etc.), and nurse's aide.

Mrs. Warren Sharp, director of the project, said this week that these courses will be offered at different times throughout the next few months as teachers are secured. She said that plans now are to offer only two or three courses at a time so that interested parties will be able to take several courses without conflict.

She said that plans are also underway to try to have at least one college extension course in one of the basic required courses and a nurse's aide course available in the fall.

Two courses in the program will start in the next two weeks. These will be a course in macrame which will be taught by Mrs. Joe Norton on Tuesday nights and one on knitting to be taught by Mrs. Eunice Winegarn.

This course will also be held on Tuesday nights. The knitting course will start

Tuesday and the macrame course will start the following Tuesday.

A course in upholstering and refinishing furniture is scheduled to start the last Tuesday night in March.

The Hamlin school system has been selected as one of several schools across the state to conduct pilot programs designed to make the public school facilities and resources available to all members of the community.

The Hamlin School system has been offering Adult Basic Education programs to the public for several years and classes are currently being held at the present time. This new program not only includes this type program but also will be much broader in scope.

Almost any course that attracts enough interest can be included in this program. Mrs. Sharp said earlier: "If people want it, and we can find a teacher, we will make it available," she said.

A physical fitness program for men and a slimmatics course for women is currently underway as part of this program.

Shortcourse On Stocker Cattle Monday, Tuesday

Gary Finley of Hamlin.

The program Monday will open with a session on "Management and Care of Stocker Cattle" by Dr. Whitney Rounds, area livestock specialist from College Station. Following this at 7:45 will be a program on "Health Care of Stocker Cattle" by Dr. Hagler.

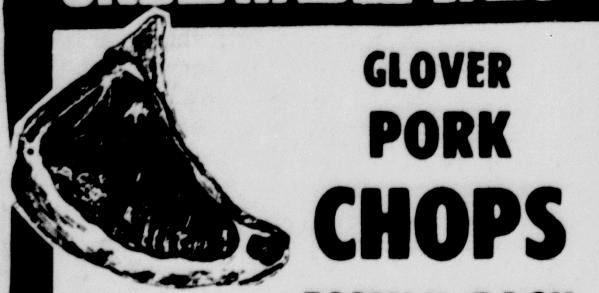

"Livestock Pests and Their Control" will be presented by Emory Boring, area entomologist, to open the Tuesday meeting. This will be followed at 7:45 by a session on "Cattle Outlook" by Norman Brants.

WOMAN OF THE YEAR—

Mrs. Moore Has Quiet Way Of Doing Things for Others

Hamlin's Woman of the Year for 1975, honored for her quiet way of doing things for others and the community, was very surprised when she realized that the person being introduced by Bob Hawes was herself, Tennie Barnett Moore. She confided to friends later, "If I'd known—I would not have worn this old gray dress."

Hawes told about her being a member of a large family reared on a farm near Hamlin. She graduated from high school here and was employed in the bank for nine years, becoming an astute business woman.

She has always been involved in community activities and is a former member of Business and Professional Women's Club and bridge clubs and through the years has been an active member of Hamlin Woman's Forum, governing body of Hamlin Memorial Library.

Mrs. Moore joined her husband in farming and ranching interests and after his death, Dec. 30, 1950, continued to manage the landholdings and ranching interests until her retirement in 1966.

In 1966 she leased the farm to Barry, Robert and David Moore.

When the Hamlin Foundation was formed and the Hamlin Swimming Pool was built in 1955 it was on land that had been deeded by Mrs. Moore "to the children of Hamlin."

During the past year, Mrs. Moore assisted with a Bicentennial project, a reproduction of a book printed about Hamlin in 1911.

Hawes told a story concerning Mrs. Moore's health during a seven-year drought. She complained of headaches and being tired to her doctor. He prescribed some pills and told her to call if she needed more. She had to call him and have the prescription refilled several times. She was beginning to get concerned and asked how long she would have to take them. His reply was "until it rains."

When she went on the stage to receive the plaque she told the audience, "if it doesn't rain soon, I'll tell you about those pills."

Favorite Recipes

By Barbara Craig

The following recipe for homemade white bread is one that came into our kitchen several years ago. I received it from a friend who had gotten it from Leroy Pritchard, who at that time was making it regularly each weekend.

I have varied the recipe some by using powdered milk and hot water. I never did like to scald milk. From reading instructions with the present day dry yeast, I find that milk that has been pasteurized does not need to be scalded. But, I prefer to use the cheaper powdered product which is also lowfat and the milk has to be hot to melt the shortening and dissolve the sugar, anyway.

Now back to the bread recipe. This makes 5 large loaves.

HOMEMADE BREAD

You will need the following ingredients:

1 two-thirds c. powdered milk
hot water
1 c. shortening
1 c. sugar
3 eggs
2 T. salt
3 env. yeast dissolved in 3/4 c. warm water
5 lbs. flour

Start with a large container. I use a large round plastic dishpan which is never used for anything else. Put 1 and two-thirds cups of powdered milk in 2 qt. measuring container. Fill with hot water until it reaches the 5 cup level. Add 1 c. shortening and 1 c. sugar, stir and allow to cool to lukewarm.

In large container place 3 eggs and beat slightly, adding salt, then the milk and yeast mixtures. Stir in about half of a 5 lb. sack of flour. Up to this point I use an electric mixer. Stir in remaining flour. Knead on lightly floured bread board and return to bowl, grease and cover with cloth. Allow to rise until double. Divide into 5 parts. Roll out with rolling pin (to release air bubbles) so that width of dough is length of bread pan. Roll jelly roll fashion and while holding one end "spark" the dough to reduce air bubbles. Place in greased pan, press down in pan and then turn so that top of loaf is greased. Allow to rise until double. Bake at 400 degrees 10 minutes and reduce heat to 350 degrees for about 20-25 minutes more. This varies according to different ovens. If loaf browns too quickly cover with "tent" of foil. Loaf will sound hollow when removed from pan when done. Grease top of loaf for soft crust and cover while it cools. For crunchy crust, coat with a thin mixture of milk and sugar.

To slice while hot use electric knife. Freezes well.

the gospel truth

By Bro. Marshall Townsley

"What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." Romans 8:31, 35, 37-39

Yes, through the complete work of Christ we, as born again believers, have been reconciled back to God forevermore, never to be separated again from his presence and love. This is the work called righteousness. In Christ, all sin past, present, and future is paid for and no longer causes God to turn his face from us in anger. God speaking as the Lord thy Redeemer says, "In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee. For this is as the waters of Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee." Isaiah 54:8, 9

"But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him." Romans 5: 8, 9.

Yet we need to see that sin is still deadly. Romans 6: 12, 16 says, "Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof. Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?" The results of sin are still death. When we sin we become the servants of satan even though we are still members of the household of God. God has not turned his back on us! His love remains constant. He is not mad. "My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous." 1 John 2: 1 "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." 1 John 1: 9

These scriptures were written to Christians to maintain their fellowship with God.

God waits for you with open arms if you've been in the clutches of satan and sin. Confess or agree with him that you've been wrong and He will cleanse you from all guilt and condemnation. Woe unto him that tries to separate us from the love of God.

3 env. yeast dissolved in 3/4 c. warm water
5 lbs. flour

of powdered milk in 2 qt. measuring container. Fill with hot water until it reaches the 5 cup level. Add 1 c. shortening and 1 c. sugar, stir and allow to cool to lukewarm.

In large container place 3 eggs and beat slightly, adding salt, then the milk and yeast mixtures. Stir in about half of a 5 lb. sack of flour. Up to this point I use an electric mixer. Stir in remaining flour. Knead on lightly floured bread board and return to bowl, grease and cover with cloth. Allow to rise until double. Divide into 5 parts. Roll out with rolling pin (to release air bubbles) so that width of dough is length of bread pan. Roll jelly roll fashion and while holding one end "spark" the dough to reduce air bubbles. Place in greased pan, press down in pan and then turn so that top of loaf is greased. Allow to rise until double. Bake at 400 degrees 10 minutes and reduce heat to 350 degrees for about 20-25 minutes more. This varies according to different ovens. If loaf browns too quickly cover with "tent" of foil. Loaf will sound hollow when removed from pan when done. Grease top of loaf for soft crust and cover while it cools. For crunchy crust, coat with a thin mixture of milk and sugar.

To slice while hot use electric knife. Freezes well.

FROM THE FILES . . .

FIFTY YEARS AGO
(February 5, 1926)

When a gin catches on fire and all the work hands are there, it is usually saved, but when it catches on Sunday morning when all the boys are fixing to go to church (?) it is almost a cinch the thing will be a total loss. This is just what happened last Sunday to the main double gin at the Pioneer plant. It caught from some unknown cause, about nine-thirty o'clock and despite all the streams of water of the Fire Department it gradually crumpled down. This is one of Hamlin's oldest and largest gins and to be sure it will be rebuilt before next season.

Sunday night near one o'clock the Reynolds Cafe oil stove exploded and the fire boys were called out to stop another fire. The flames got a good headway and before they were under control had practically ruined all fixtures, goods, and the inside walls and ceiling of the iron building that housed this building. This place is known as the Dr. Stone corner, just south of the Dillard Hotel and north of the Opera House. The cafe was operated by Nightwatchman Reynolds' son.

The Directors and officers of the First National Bank held their annual meeting January 14th. Some new directors and officers are now on the list. The Directors for the new year are: Mrs. J. G. Wilkinson, Chairman; H. H. Wilkinson, John T. Day, Martin McCain, F. B. Moore, O. H. Berry and E. C. Brand.

Excitement reigned supreme in Hamlin for awhile last Saturday afternoon, when it was seen that a Ford car had plunged through the front plate glass window at Barrow Furniture Company. This accident happened when there were many people on the streets, but only one was hurt badly and another badly bruised. Clyde Dodson, who lives on the T. K. Smith farm in Stonewall County, across the river, was passing just as the car jumped onto the walk. The driver of the car was a Mr. Thomas and was driving a car owned by a Mr. Jones, both being young men. It is said that Thomas was not accustomed to driving and when he attempted to park, put his foot on the gas and the car plunged right up on the curb and into the big glass. Dodson was caught an he and his little boy were shoved into the furniture store. Those seeing the affair said Mr. Dodson grabbed the little four-year old son up and held him clear of the car, but the falling glass, as they went through, cut the little fellow on the right leg very severely.

would reveal that the average American is getting more federal government than he wants, needs, or cares to pay for.

That working American wants the federal government to get off his back, off his employer, out of his pocketbook, out of his habits, his personal beliefs, and off his convictions.

The best government is the one that governs least—and is closest to the taxpayer. If our local school system, our city council, our county government was run in the same manner as the federal government the average taxpayer would shoot himself.

Under the fairness doctrine, let's hear a state of the union not from Washington politicians, political pundits, media commentators, but from the grassroots taxpayer who knows that the state of the union is one long, drawn-out pain in the neck or much lower!

The plans include band practice rooms, music library, storage for band equipment and a gymnasium for high school students.

Presentation of a state life membership pin to Mrs. Fred C. Smith highlighted the meeting of the Hamlin Elementary Parent-Teacher Association meeting last Thursday afternoon. The presentation was made by Mrs. John D. Ferguson.

City School Superintendent C. F. Cook this week declared that the new speed limit signs installed by the City of Hamlin around all the city's five schools have been having a "slowing down" effect on motorists of the community, which has resulted in a great lessening of traffic accident danger to school students.

The signs, placed in areas one block around the schools, limit auto traffic to 15 miles per hour.

Jones County tax collections are exceptionally good considering the dry years that have plagued many property owners for several years declared Ima B. Dougherty, tax assessor-collector at Anson, in an interview with a Herald reporter Tuesday.

State tax rate of 64 cents and county tax rate of 42 cents per $100 property valuations made the tax rolls amount to about $272,000 for 1955 taxes.

Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow in Hamlin High School is Judith Brandon, according to an announcement made this week by instructors in homemaking at the school.

She will be entered in competition to name the state's candidate for the title of All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow and she will also be considered for the runner-up of the state.

Tracksters at Hamlin schools have a new practice course that was completed this week, it is announced by C. F. Cook, superintendent of schools.

The 440-yard oval track is located just west of the football stadium on property owned by the school. It has a 120-yard straight-away course.

We would like to take this means of thanking you for the excellent publicity you gave the Hamlin Cemetery in your By-Line column of last week. The need to enlighten the citizens of Hamlin regarding the up-grading, the improvements, and the financial assistance still needed to underwrite the perpetual Trust Fund is most vital and without your help, we could not have accomplished this.

Each Trustee of the Hamlin Cemetery Association wishes to individually endorse this letter of appreciation and to thank you for the immeasurable publicity this article gave the Cemetery Association.

Neinda Philosopher Has Some Doubts About How Far A Federal Judge's Power Extends

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One may be in contempt of court this week, but that's his worry, not ours.

Dear editor:

Everybody knows Federal judges, appointed for life by whoever's President if they happen to be a member of his party, have a lot of power and authority.

If a law is unclear, you get a Federal judge to step in and tell you what it is, or what it's going to be from then on. If there's some question about say, school bus routes in Boston, a Federal judge can straighten things out, give or take a few thousand kids this side of town or the other.

Federal judges, who never have to run for office, can nonetheless tell you how you've got to.

Now I'm not complaining about this, the country needs somebody with authority to speak out and lay down some rules once in awhile, if more parents had done that with their children it's possible more children would have turned out better than their parents, but there's bound to be a limit to how much power a Federal judge has and I believe I have run across such a case.

When Friday came the first week of the Patty Hearst trial with only a handful of jurors selected out of a panel of 36, the judge told the rest, about 25 of them, to go home for the week-end and instructed them not to "read newspaper, watch television, listen to the radio or discuss the case."

This may be a case of the law falling apart in the face of human nature. If each of those 25 prospective jurors was a bachelor or an old maid—wait a minute, I'd better say single woman—living alone, the judge's instructions might work, but if there are lots of other members of the family living there, somebody's going to be in contempt of court. Furthermore, what do you do if the people in the adjoining apartment have their radio on loud? Spend the week-end with the covers pulled over your head?

I believe if I were a Federal judge I'd rather stick to mapping bus routes in Boston.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Early Childhood Appraisal Service Available Here

Early Childhood Appraisal evaluation services will be made available through the Tri-County Education Coop, at the Elementary school, Feb. 24, 25, 26, and 27. Screening will include children who will be 4 or 5 years old on or before Sept. 1, 1976 not presently enrolled in the 5-year kindergarten.

Purpose of the screening is to determine strengths or weaknesses in developmental areas of language, motor skills, and/or auditory and visual perception. In the event a child shows a need for supervised developmental activities, a certified teacher will be available to assist in the child's training.

It is felt these evaluations are a must for all 5-year-old children not presently enrolled in school and very valuable in checking 4-year-old children on their readiness for entry into school. As many children as possible will be contacted by the school to assign an appointment time. Anyone not contacted should call 576-3191 for an appointment for their child.

Conserve and Save
Tips for Your
DISHWASHER

★ Clean the filter screen often. A clogged filter can reduce the efficiency of your dishwasher.

★ Use only detergents manufactured specifically for dishwashers. A wetting agent helps prevent water spots on glasses and silverware.

★ A dishwasher will usually hold a whole day's dishes. It takes as much hot water and energy to wash 1 dish as it does a full load. Stack your dishes out of sight in your dishwasher and wait until you have a full load to turn it on.
